(Bohemia) – Suffolk County Legislator Bill Lindsay spoke at Connetquot High School for their event Connetquot Speaks: An Anti-Drug Forum for Parents and Teenagers on Monday April 4th. Given the fact that the drug epidemic is such a major issue here in Suffolk County, Legislator Lindsay saw it as a great opportunity to be part of the conversation on how to fix the problem.

“The drug epidemic is the single biggest issue we face here in Suffolk County” said Legis. Lindsay. “I appreciate everyone who came tonight. In order to combat this drug crisis we have it can’t just be the leadership in the school district, or just the parents, or just the Legislature or just the police. It will take a group effort of all of us working together to stop it.”
